

President's Tidings

Jo Bienvenu

Hi all,

What a time to live in this lifetime with COVID-19 pandemic going on. Seldom I just want to scream, yell, holler but I gently reminded myself, "what good will it do?" If I had screamed, I'd make my family go crazy, ha! I surely hope this continues to find you all very well like me. I really miss human touch especially friendly hugs and I am sure you know the feeling. I continue to stay home and remain positive. Please make sure you wear a mask not only to protect yourself but everyone else around you as well. Wearing mask can save lives.

As you know, we had our first regular meeting on Zoom and gosh, it was challenging for me to not 'see' each of you and have eye contact with everyone who attended the meeting when everyone had their screen private leaving the floor to us who spoke. Thank you so much for showing up on Zoom because it actually helped us meet the quorum, wow! And thank you for your patience with how I ran the meeting using Zoom.

I wish we had more exciting news to share, but we have nothing to share. Sleep, eat, work, watch TV, read books everyday— how exciting.

Please continue to stay well and be safe.

Love and hugs,
President Jo
